CAUSE

The offender was released from FCI Butner Low and completed his custodial sentence at Toler House, a residential reentry center in Newark, New Jersey, on December 6, 2018. Prior to his release, we requested a modification of his conditions to extend his time at Toler as he did not have a release plan and would have released as homeless.

Robert Miller

An extension of two months at Toler House was granted by Your Honor to allow for the commencement of his Social Security Income and additional time to assist him in obtaining housing. At this time, we are requesting an additional two months at the residential reentry center. Although the offender has been diligently searching for housing he can afford, he has not been able to secure a residence yet.
